

Privacy Policy

Rush Coffee respects the privacy of their customers and will only ever use the information provided to complete orders and ensure a pain-free ordering process. Rush Coffee (and any of their employees) will never disclose, sell, rent, lease or trade any information about The User to third parties. The User will always have access to all personal information and able to amend or delete details as they wish.

This policy was updated 2nd March 2015.